

Weekly Bulletin

This week's thought of the week has centred around the British value of Individual Liberty. We have also linked this in to other British values such the rule of law and democracy. Next week we are holding our very own general election. This is between a number of year 10 who would like to be our head students next year, who will be responsible for different areas of the school. The election is already getting competitive with all the candidates sharing their manifestos across the school. Results will be announced next week.

Congratulations to the following pupils who have received the most positive points this week:

- Jacob Rhead (Y8)
- Dexter Murray (Y7)
- Cleo Cooper (Y7)
- Leo Caine (Y8)
- Thomas Richards (Y7)
- Ryley Grew (Y9)
- Molly Williams (Y10)

Teaching and Learning

It was a real pleasure to spend Tuesday evening celebrating the end of year eleven at the annual prom. For many, the prom is the culmination of a year of hard work and preparation for the GCSE examinations. The sum of all efforts to really make a difference. With the support of parents and staff we hope to celebrate some amazing success stories on August 22nd.

Encouraging all students to give each lesson their all, has become increasingly important in the ever-competitive world. There have been some excellent results across the end of year ten assessments and end of year nine assessments. Results will be shared with parents via classcharts. They clearly show where students have 'paid in' a regular message shared in our daily lineup this week.

Well done to all students who took part in this year's sports day. Sports day allows students to demonstrate our school values outside the classroom. Students did a fantastic job of competing during rounders during the afternoon as well as all others who competed in activities across the morning. Points will be collated, and the winners will be announced by Mr Sedgwick.

This week, the following students work has been nominated for recognition by their class teachers for their outstanding books:

*Jacob R
Emily T
Mille B
Jojo R*

Well done!

With the amazing news that TREA is in the top 10 Nationally for educake use in Geography, it would be amazing to see a last-minute surge in use across all subjects as we head towards the end of the school year.

Please don't forget that you can set your own questions to aid revision using the revision genie button.

A short guide on how to do this can be found here.
